About Me

A skilled MERN (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js) stack developer with 2 years of experience developing scalable and robust web applications. I have expertise in creating custom solutions using cutting-edge technologies and implementing best practices in software development. I have Solid ReactJS knowledge, especially with Redux, Redux Toolkit, and React Router V6.

I frequently write articles about technology on my personal blog hosted on Hashnode
